

Cyprus Government Policies on Architecture

- Basic element of the Cyprus history and civilisation
- Basic element of the built environment
- Cultural and civil indicator of the national progress
- Affects the behavior of citizens and society in general

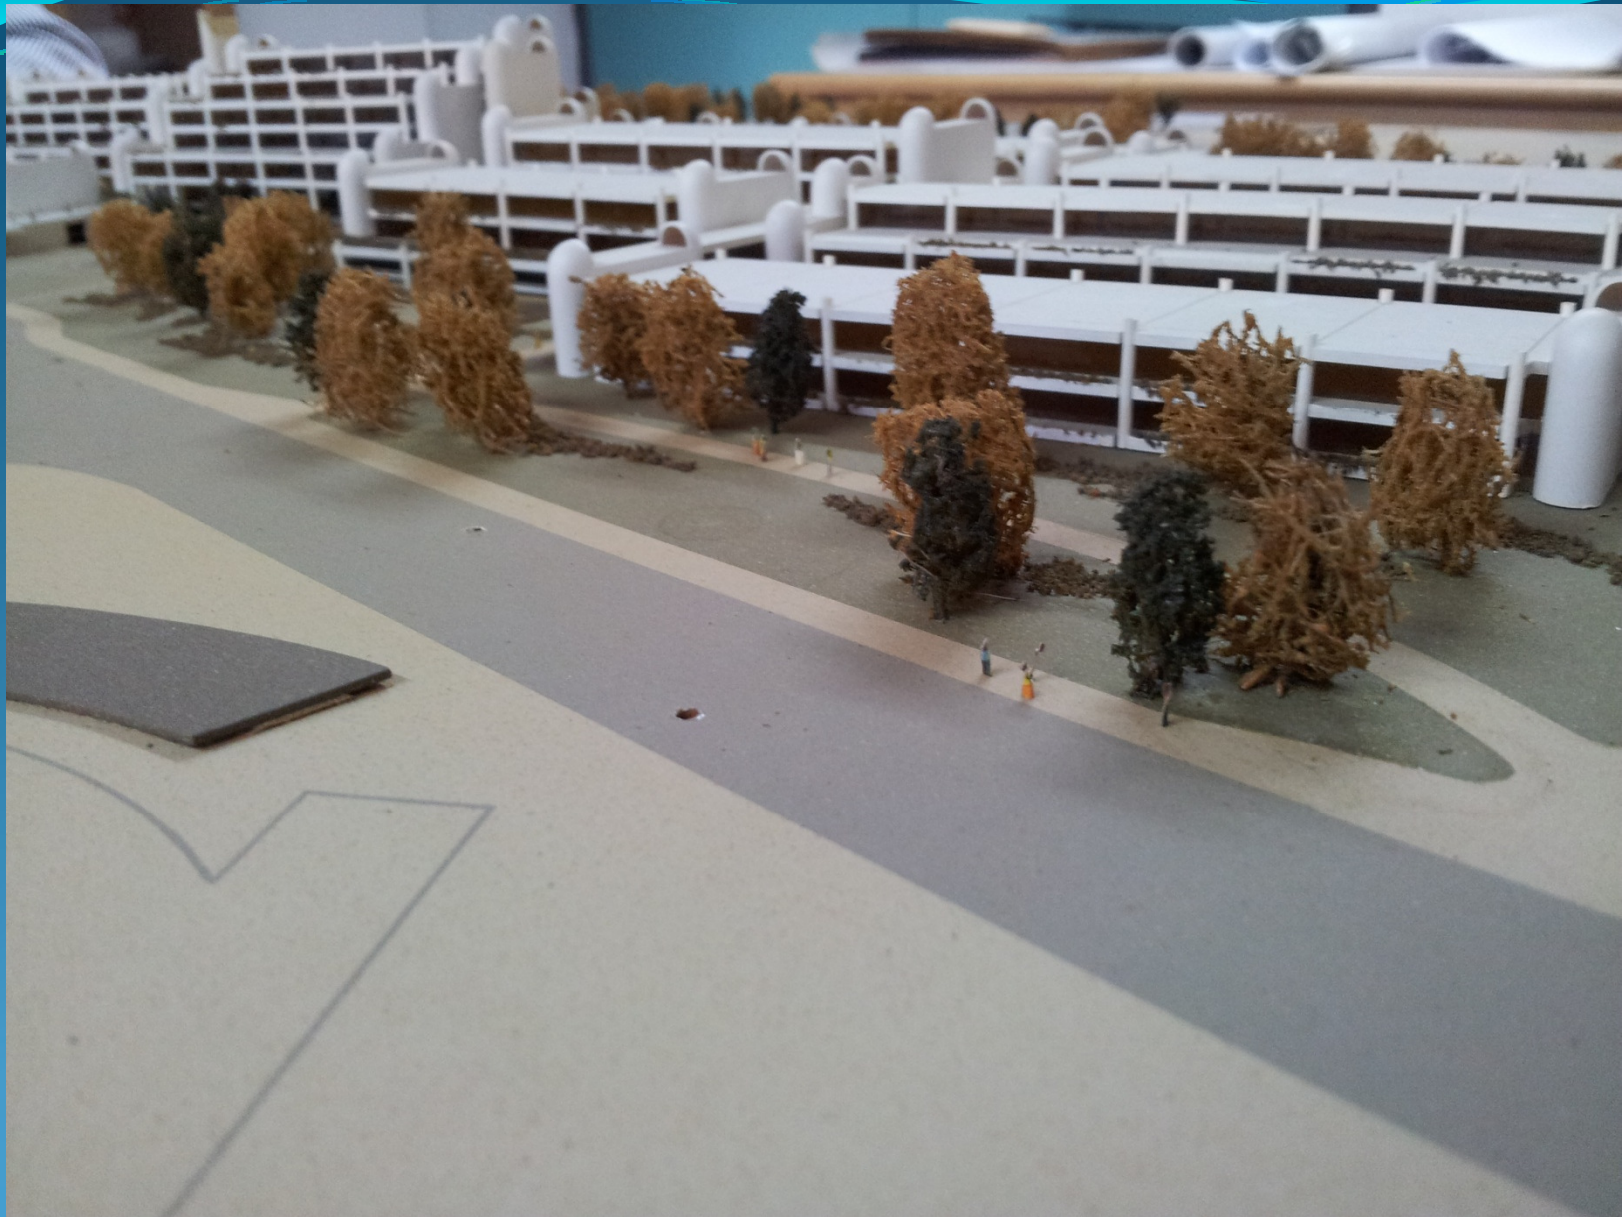

Architecture:

- Is a social necessity helping the evolution and the progress of the society
- Well designed and built areas offer comfort and relaxation to the users
- The colours, shapes, lighting, landscaping of the built environment contribute to the improvement of quality of life